Driver Charged with Dragging LAPD Officer

A Porter Ranch man was charged today with assaulting a police officer, kidnapping and transportation for sale of a controlled substance, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced today.

Grant Anthony Muldrow (dob 7/26/93), is scheduled to be arraigned sometime after 1:30 p.m. at the Los Angeles County Superior Court in San Fernando, Department S, in case PA082817. Prosecutors will ask that his bail be set at $235,000.

Deputy District Attorney Garrett Dameron with the Crimes Against Peace Officers Unit is prosecuting the case.

Muldrow is suspected of being the driver of an SUV that took off when an LAPD narcotics officer tried to make an arrest on Jan. 15 in Granada Hills. While the officer kept his hand on the steering wheel, he was dragged along as the car reached speeds of up to 45 mph, the prosecutor said.

Eventually, the car crashed into a tree and fence. The suspect fled on foot. The officer suffered several broken bones. He remains in good condition.

If convicted, Muldrow faces up to 13 years, eight months in state prison.

The case remains under investigation by the Los Angeles Police Department.
